

*Please join Nancy Pearlman for an afternoon of scenic beauty and architectural history
in memory of Agnes Branch Pearlman
1-5 PM
Sunday, August 29, 2010*

You are cordially invited to a reception for the

Agnes Emma Branch Pearlman and Carl Kenneth Pearlman, M.D., Memorial Fund

of Educational Communications whose many projects include:

Earth Cultures, Ecology Center of Southern California, Environmental Directions radio, ECONEWS television, Project Ecotourism, Humanity and the Planet (Wells for Burkina Faso), The Compendium Newsletter, and Environmental Resources Library.

See www.ecoprojects.org for more details.

This gathering will be held at the Pearlman cabin in Idyllwild, California, in the San Jacinto Mountains. The cabin was designed by the world-famous architect John Lautner and has been in museum exhibits in Europe and North America; pictures are on www.NancyPearlman.net.

Enjoy the camaraderie--bring your favorite music and/or musical instruments for a jam session of music and folk dance. Other activities in Idyllwild that weekend are "Jazz in the Pines" at Idyllwild Arts, nature walk at Idyllwild Nature Center County Park, art and craft galleries, and hiking.

RSVP for this event and for address. Directions will be provided. Carpooling is also being coordinated.

The gathering will be held whether it is sunny or raining.

Nancy's business and message number is (310) 559-9160, cell (213) 705-4992, cabin (951) 659-3416

Support the Arts, Education, and the Environment!

As a non-profit, 501-c-3, volunteer organization, Educational Communications provides a variety of programs for all ages. Ethnic world dance performances and classes are given in the public schools. Environmental interviews are conducted and broadcast on the radio and TV. Ecotourism documentaries are presented on cable channels. Conservation action is carried out. These projects and other activities are all conducted without paid staff but by dedicated individuals. We depend on your donations to provide valuable educational services and programs. Please give generously.

Contributions may be sent to Educational Communications
P. O. Box 351419, Los Angeles, CA 90035-9119

You may earmark your donation to a specific project. Suggested tax-deductible donation $25.00
